Office of the Legislative Counsel

Wednesday - 16 December 59

1. Sam Crosby on the staff of Defense Appropriations Subcommittee of House Appropriations Committee telephoned to inquire if the Director could give the usual briefing for the Subcommittee on 8 January 1960 at ten o'clock. I inquired if there were any specific thoughts the Chairman had in mind and Mr. Crosby replied that he wanted the usual briefing that the Director furnished to the Subcommittee to include the Soviet military posture touching on such trouble spots in the world as the Director thought appropriate. Mr. Crosby guessed that they might ask questions about the Caribbean area. After checking with Mr. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Crosby was advised that the time and date were satisfactory.
